AMBITIOUS? — Make '64 better than the years before. How? Take specific skill training for business. Central Virginia's expanding economy makes the demand for men and women trained in office skills greater than the supply. Automation is opening new doors for new skills. Limited financial resources need not delay your reach toward a better future. Educational financing is available at regular bank rates. If you are unhappy in your present position, or back in production; if you are ambitious; if you are willing to be counseled and tested (without expense or obligation): you will be wise to investigate the jobs that are available through spending months, not years, in an accredited business education program at Lynchburg Business College. Fall term opens September 23. Placement Department will aid you in finding part - time work. Dormitories and other desirable homes accommodations. Write to Phillips Business College for a free 1963-64 catalog. Do it today. P. O. Box 126, Lynchburg, Virginia. 8-1-4t

Annual Homecoming & Revival At Galilee Baptist Church

The annual Home Coming and Revival Service will begin at the Galilee Baptist Church this Sunday morning at the regular 11:30 service. The pastor of the church will deliver the morning message. The Mount Shiloh Baptist Church choir will render special music. The Mount Shiloh Usher Board will serve at the doors. The afternoon service will begin at 3 p.m. with the Rivermount Baptist Church of Lynchburg, pastor, choir and chorus as special guest. Dinner will be served by the Ladies of the church. A report from the special will program the afternoon service. The Rev. James Franklin will be the guest speaker for the week.

The Hasadiah Baptist Association will convene with the Mount Nebo Baptist Church in Buckingham County this Thursday and Friday beginning at 10 a.m. The moderator, Rev. C. L. Brown, is asking all churches to be present.

An appreciative audience attended the regular preaching services at the Promise Land Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The pastor delivered a special sermon. The church choir rendered special music. Several visitors attended the service. The general offering for the day was very good.

Plans have been completed for the annual Revival and Home Coming at the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church for the second Sunday in August beginning at the 11:30 service. The morning service will be conducted by the pastor and the home choir. The 3 p.m. service will be conducted by the Rev. Preeman Johnson and special music will be rendered by the Galilee Junior Choir. The Rev. T. B. Wilson, of Rox-bor, N. C., will be the guest speaker for the week.

Mrs. Annie Marshall Harris and family, of Pittsburg, Pa., spent a week's vacation here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Margaret Forest, and family.

Mrs. Maggie Cheatman, of West Virginia, has returned here to live with her son, Deacon Virgil Fleshman.

News Of First Baptist Church

Regular preaching service was held at the First Baptist Church Sunday at 11:30 a.m. Rev. Artis Aspley preached. All present enjoyed the service. We were happy to have Rev. C. A. Marshall to worship with us. We also enjoyed his remarks. The Baby Contest came to a close with a great success. There were seven contestants. The three winners were First Prize, Miss Aleene Marie Preston; Second Prize, Miss Zandra Evette Williams; Third Prize, Miss Gloria Jean Bailey. The other participants were Mr. Earl Lester Matthews, Miss Arlene Matthews, Mr. Cecil C. Hunter, and Miss Valerie Rose McCoy. The program was sponsored by Mrs. T. W. Hamlet for the benefit of the Youth Choir. Miss Ruth Irving and her daughter, Mrs. Loretta Wilkerson had a selling at their home last Saturday for the benefi; of the usher board and the Baby contest. They both did very good.

If a cow is bred earlier than 60 days after calving, chances for delivering a live calf are reduced. The cow with calf 90 days after calving costs about a dollar a day in lost profits.
